

Article 8(8)

8. Member States may prohibit, inter alia, advertising for credit products which:
- (a) highlights the ease or speed with which credit can be obtained;
 - (b) states that a discount is conditional upon taking up credit;
 - (c) offers 'grace periods' of more than three months for the repayment of credit instalments.